WE NEED FRIENDS LIKE YOU

Opened in 2007, The Station is a lovingly restored former Victorian railway building, which is now home to a 3-screen independent cinema, restaurant, shop, galleries, and a selection of independent businesses. The Station is in Richmond, North Yorkshire, cultural capital of the Yorkshire Dales.

A community hub for creativity, The Station also hosts regular groups and classes, and runs a busy programme of events and exhibitions throughout the year. The Station really is the place to be in Yorkshire for film, food, and art!

Owned and operated by the Richmondshire Building Preservation Trust (RBPT), a locally based heritage restoration charity, The Station retains many of its original railway features, including the large platform area, original iron work, and magnificent glazed roof.

As a Friend of The Station you can help this remarkable community venue continue to go from strength to strength!

LET'S DO IT!

WE THINK
THE STATION
IS GREAT - BUT DON'T
JUST TAKE OUR WORD
FOR IT!

---

WHAT A LOVELY PLACE! I AM FILLED WITH ADMIRATION FOR THE PRESERVATION TRUST AND WHAT THEY HAVE DONE HERE....A GREAT EXAMPLE FOR OTHER TOWNS AND VILLAGES.

---

GREAT LOCATION,VERY GOOD FOOD AND A LOVELY CINEMA TOO. A WONDERFUL CREDIT TO THE TRUST AND THE TEAM OF STAFF WHO WORK HARD TO MAKE IT AN ENJOYABLE EXPERIENCE.

---

GREAT MULTI-USE SPACE - CAFE/RESTAURANT, CINEMA, GALLERY, BAKERY, BREWERY, CRAFT AREA, DANCE STUDIO AND MORE. THE FOOD AT THE CAFE IS EXCELLENT AND THE CINEMA SO MUCH MORE ENJOYABLE THAN A HUGE MULTIPLEX.
